Vol. 1, No. 28

BOG ON THE MINI-CAMPUS...The Board of Governors held its first meeting at GSU, Thursday, April 13, since the University became operational last September....Bill Engbretson skipped the formal report of the President, which was submitted in writing, preferring to review GSU's goals, progress and problems....Referring to the GSU staff, he said "You have to look a long way to find a staff as committed and as effective...I would like to publically commend the staff and students...They are dedicated and hard working...Some of them are spread too thin because of their desire to be responsive and fulfill all of our particular mandates so early in our history...The gap between aspiration and reality persists...for some it is great, for others it is small." (See Reverse Side for BOG Actions Affecting GSU.)

GSUings....Thursday (April 13) was a busy day at the GSU Mini-campus with about fifty people jammed into Room 308 for the Board of Governors meeting, another 100 in the Commons at mid day for the meeting of Balance, the GSU Environmental Club which held a discussion on the proposed neighborhood international airport, a GSU Foundation meeting following the BOG meeting, and a few marine recruiters wondering who launched the assault....Congratulations to TONY and AIMEE WEI on the birth of their first child, daughter Manuela, born Thursday, April 6 at 10:10 a.m. at St. James Hospital, Wei-ing in at 6 pounds and 10 ounces.....Guests to the groundbreaking of Park Forest South's new Entrance Exhibit Building April 4 were visitors to the GSU Mini-campus just prior to the ceremony..... LEON JONES, JON CARLSON and HERMAN KROLL, participating in the American Educational Research Association meetings April 3-7 in Chicago..... JAYNE DeLAWTER coordinating a series of in-service programs for teachers on "Black English and Reading," aired WBEZ-FM, the Chicago Board of Education station.....MEL MUCHNIK'S voice heard on Denver radio and television in a public service campaign on alcoholism.....DAN CASAGRANDE will be a visiting professor to Beloit College in Wisconsin as part of the American Geological Institutes visiting geological scientist program.....AL SHERMAN invited to participate in the First National Congress of Black Professionals in Higher Education in Austin, Texas April 5-7..... BOB PRESS (CS) giving four lectures on "African Art" and displaying part of his art collection at the Beacon Hill School and again at Blackhawk Junior High.....BOB PRESS (CS) and JAYNE DeLAWTER (CHLD) in Peoria March 24 for a conference on innovation in education sponsored by the West Central Association of Supervisors and Principals.

STUDENT-ADMINISTRATION DIALOGUE....The student-administration dialogue, inadvertently scheduled during Spring break has been re-scheduled for Thursday, May 4 at 1:00 p.m. in the Commons. The student generated agenda will include discussion on the University's status with regard to accreditation, financial aid questions and the concern for accountability to or for poverty area students at GSU.

LOVE CANCELLED...Spring is here but Love is not. Art historian Richard Love's lectures on Criticism and the Arts, scheduled for April 17 and 20 have been cancelled.

BALANCE...Do you wonder about what is being done about conservation at the permanent GSU campus? Do you want to learn about airports or perhaps Governors Gateway Park? Would you like to take a trip to the Indiana or Illinois Dunes State Parks, Thorn Creek Woods, Goose Lake Prairie State Park or Argonne National Laboratories? You can do all this in BALANCE, GSU's Environmental Club. Meetings are held every Thursday at noon in Room 710.

CS COMMUNITY COUNCIL LECTURE SERIES....The second in the CS Community Council Lecture series features Michael Singer and Richard W. Marco, members of the Rank and File Caucus of the United Auto Workers. The two will speak on "Internal Politics in the United Auto Workers" on Tuesday, April 18 at 8:00 p.m. in Room 308.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK.....Is the statement in the box true or false?

This Statement
Is False!

AT THE BOG....Actions affecting GSU included approval of an advance registration procedure in May-June for the Fall or Seventh Session so that the University could save spaces in learning modules for current students as well as have an indication of the number of students returning...An advance deposit will be required except for students who have scholarships covering at least half of the registration fee...Other actions included acceptance of a $6,180 grant from Park Forest South Utilities Company to support a CEAS research and monitoring program with the company as a forerunner to future development of a water and sewage research station to be tendered to the University as a laboratory for Environmental Sciences....Authorization was granted GSU to make application to the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for the status of "Recognized Candidate" on or about May 1, 1972 with visitations and examination by an accrediting team to be scheduled for the Fall of 1972. (See the April GSU INNOVATOR for a full discussion on the accrediting process.)....Also approved was CHLD participation in an urban counselor training institute scheduled in July at Southwest College of the Chicago City College System....Also formally approved, as previously announced, was a new fee schedule for BOG schools...GSU full-time students will pay about $95 - $120 for 6-8 units.
